Colonial Rebellion Editorial

Activity: Write a brief newspaper article for an imaginary newspaper on one of the three events you chose: Boston Massacre, Boston Tea Party, or Tar and Feathering of Tax Collector. Use your rough draft and pre-writing to complete the article. (Delete this once you've read the instructions)

<h2 style="margin: 0;">Name of your newspaper</h2> <small>Date of issue</small>
<h1 style="margin: 0;">MAIN STORY</h1> <h1 style="margin: 0;">HEADLINE</h1> <small>Name of writer</small> P1 - Brief introduction that summarizes the Who, What, Where, When, and Why of the event. This should be short and written in the language that reflects your viewpoint (Patriot or British) P2- Section that clearly supports or criticizes the actions of the people involved in the event and explains what should be done as a result of the action. This should reflect your newspaper's perspective P3- Section that briefly presents the opposing point of view and then tells why that point of view is wrong P4- Conclusion emphasizing once more why your point of view is right	Your main photo should grab the reader's attention. Copy and paste a photo from a website. <hr/> Write a caption for your photo. <hr/> In other news... (Create other fictional news stories that may have been in the paper at that time) Headline 1 page xx Headline 2 page xx Headline 3 page xx (choose headlines appropriate to the topic)
